

"Man called the assassination a 'hugh thing'". Phila Inc. 2 12.25.66

Man quotes Mrs. Kennedy as asking "are you going to put yourself in the book" and his response, "I replied I didn't see how I could very well be keep myself out of it." To this he quotes her assaying "Good". Whether or not her opinion, if accurately quoted, persists, there is no doubt that Manchester kept his promise, for he certainly is in his book.

Quote from forward the awful puffery about his accuracy, what JFK wanted presumably of him alone
